2. Travel Information

Directions:

GEUS is most easily reached from Copenhagen airport by Metro, getting off at Nørreport station. The Metro ride from the airport to Nørreport st. takes about 15 minutes. From Nørreport station to GEUS is a 10 minutes' walk, or you can take any of the 6A, 42, 184 or 185 buses and get off at the first stop (Georg Brandes Plads / Statens Museum for Kunst). When you arrive please report to GEUS Reception, found on the left side of the main entrance hall.

There is a ticket office on the arrivals floor at Terminal 3 and automatic machines are also available. The Metro one-way fare from the airport to GEUS or anywhere downtown is '3 zoner', currently 36 DKK (about 5 EUR). A taxi ride from the airport will cost approx. 300 DKK. For the rest of your stay, the cheapest fare (2 zoner, 24 DKK) lets you travel within central Copenhagen. The same tickets are valid for Bus, Metro and local trains (S-Tog). Single tickets can be bought for cash from the bus drivers but are expensive, so you may want to buy 10 rides card called 'klippekort' for the appropriate number of zones, which you need to clip at every ride. Distances are modest within central Copenhagen though, and streets are quite safe at any hour, so you may not need much transportation.

Visas:

Participants are responsible for obtaining all necessary visas for their travel to Denmark. Further information at https://www.nyidanmark.dk/en-us/coming_to_dk/visa/visa.htm

Language, Currency and Credit Cards:

Danish is the official language in Denmark. Good English is spoken by the vast majority of the population.

The currency is the Danish krona (DKK). Most hotels, restaurants and shops accept internationally valid credit cards. As of late November 2014, the exchange rates are ca. 7.44 DKK / 1 EUR and ca. 6 DKK / 1 USD.

Time zone:

Denmark is in the Central European Time zone (CET, or GMT+1).

Electricity:

The mains voltage is 220V, 50 Hz.

Medical services:

The European Health Insurance Card is valid in Denmark.
